Why Remodel The Bath?

1) Return on Investment

According to Realtors, the two most important rooms that help sell a house are the kitchen and the bathroom.

Bathroom remodeling offers the 2nd highest return on investment for all home improvement projects at 102.2%

Why Remodel The Bath?

2) The Most Used Room in the home

Where is the first place you go when you wake up in the morning? Where is the last place you go before going to sleep at night? And how many times in between by multiple family members?

More occupants use the bathroom than any other room in the house.

Why Remodel The Bath?

3) The Most Dangerous Room in the home

According to Good Housekeeping Magazine, the bathroom is the most dangerous room in the home.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reports that every year over 235,000 people over age 15 visit emergency rooms because of injuries suffered in the bathroom and almost 14% are hospitalized.

Why Remodel The Bath?

4) Your Current Bathroom is at Risk!

Aged and porous grout and caulk can allow water to penetrate the walls of your bath enclosure, resulting in water damaged dry wall, mold, bacteria, and wood rot.

The Power of Water

If you do not control the water in the bath enclosure irreparable damage will occur

The effect of water flowing over the years has moved mountains

The Power of Water

A constant drip of water is so powerful it can eat through a porcelain surface over ¼" thick.

How can you control the water in the bath enclosure?

Bath Remodeling Alternatives

- Tear out / Demolition
- Reglazing
- Install Fiberglass kit
- Do Nothing
- ★ Prime Baths – Acrylic Remodeling

Tear Out / Replacement

Pros

- Flexibility

Cons

- On average takes 2-3 weeks to complete
- Incurs several specialty contractors
- Produces construction debris and mess
- Expensive, on average costs over $16,000

Reglazing

Pros

- Can be done in one day
- Cheap

Cons

- Prepared with caustic chemicals
- Toxic Odors
- Prone to peeling
- Short life expectancy
- 3 -7 day curing time

Fiberglass Kit

Pros

- Inexpensive

Cons

- Gel coat easily damaged, not repairable
- Stains Easily
- Does not go from floor to ceiling, leaving exposed drywall
- Limited color selection
- No customized storage
- Not 100% waterproof
- Matte finish does not reflect light
- Lots of exposed caulk
- Prone to stress cracking in the corners

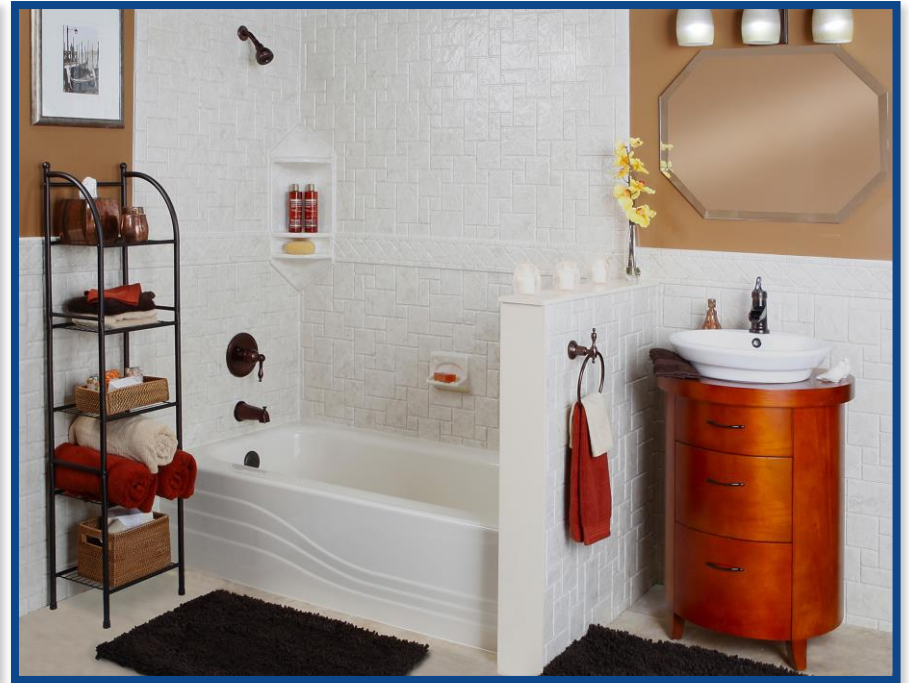

Do Nothing

If you do nothing, water will eventually penetrate through the grout causing water damaged drywall and eventually the tile wall to cave in, leaving mold and exposed insulation. Bacteria and mold behind the wall can jeopardize your family's health.

Limited Lifetime Warranty

Prime Baths products have been manufactured under the highest standards of quality and workmanship. Prime-Bath products are backed by a Limited Lifetime Warranty as follows:

Prime Bath warrants to the original consumer purchaser ("Customer") that the acrylic surface of its products will not materially fade, yellow, crack, bubble or peel under normal use so long as the Customer follows the care and maintenance guidelines set forth by Prime Baths. This warranty covers only those materials produced and sold by Prime Baths so long as those products are installed with the installation materials purchased from Prime Baths and will be void if any other installation materials are used.

This warranty will be in effect for as long as the Customer owns their home (the "warranty period"). Prime Baths does not warrant any workmanship provided by the company installing Prime Baths products. Any warranty on workmanship must be provided by the company installing the Prime Baths product. This warranty is good for a period of 5 years on Prime Baths products installed in non-residential buildings (including hotels, industrial, commercial and business).

Any claim under this warranty must be accompanied by proof of purchase (original sales receipt) from the original Customer.

In the event of a warranty claim, Prime Baths reserves the right to partially repair, completely replace or provide a full or partial refund, whichever Prime Baths deems appropriate in its discretion.

This warranty is the only warranty in regard to products sold by Prime Baths.

Prime Baths shall be responsible only for repairs, placements or a refund not to exceed the total amount paid for the product originally. Prime Baths will not be responsible for any incidental or consequential damages.

This warranty is void if installation is not completed by a certified Prime Baths Installer.

Price Assurance Warranty
